Dear Township Supervisor:

We are so very grateful for the support and financial donations over the years from Augusta Township. Many elderly residents in this area have been serviced because of your generosity, and involvement.

We are requesting funds of $4,500 which was the amount received last year for the purpose of servicing, coordinating, evaluating seniors and providing hot meal services to persons 55 years of age and older. We have tried in all ways to supplement with fundraisers, dues, donations and now the millage that will allow us to share some of the funds from the tax payer, but it is still very difficult to meet our financial needs and goals.

We realize that funds and financial assistance is a rare commodity at this time. This money will be used to support senior citizens in this township who meet here daily for friendships, warm meals, education, recreation, and so much more.

Again we are very appreciative and have been for many years. Thank you in advance for your involvement in our programs, and the continuing interest that you show to our members.

Sincerely,

Helen Nafranowicz, Director Co-Chairperson
Linda Fuller, Chairperson Advisory Board
Laurie Price, Treasurer
Gail Wilson, Secretary
