Dear Augusta Township Supervisor,

In the past years Augusta Charter Township has provided support to Lincoln Golden Ages Seniors and we continue to be very appreciative. As a pillar of the community for many years Lincoln Golden Ages Seniors has been a place in which many senior citizens enjoy. However our center has been closed since the Covid-19 pandemic.

In light of Gov. Whitmer's Covid-19 safety mandate our seniors have not had the opportunity to come to the center. Fortunately, LGAS members are resilient and will do what is necessary to keep healthy and safe. However some of our members are really struggling because of the limitations that are in place are concerned about contracting covid-19.

All things considered, when our center re-opens we will need some financial assistance related to restructuring that will be conducive to governor's mandate(s) and Lincoln Schools policies. Hence, we are requesting $4,500.00 to aid in this transition. Thank you!

Sincerely,
