

The township will be conducting inspection and testing of our water supply system over the next few weeks.

Township water customers may notice temporarily cloudy water coming from their taps.

This is due to air bubbles in the system as the result of changes in water flow. Water quality is not affected.