Dear Friends of the Augusta Charter Township Board,

The members of Lincoln Golden Ages Senior Center would like to graciously thank you for your generous contribution of $5,500.00.

With the funds we received from the Augusta Board's decision to donate to our senior center, we continue to work diligently on signing up new members to join the center and encourage our established members within this community to continue enjoying the activities and personal interaction our center provides.

The activities listed below are currently offered here at the Lincoln Golden Ages Seniors Center at no charge to our members due to your donation and are available each week.

Senior Exercises: Yoga, Arthritis Foundation Exercise Program, Cardio-Drumming, Zumba Gold, Indoor Track Walking at the Lincoln High School Athletics Building.

Group Activities: Bingo, Bunco, Euchre, Book Club, Red Hat Ladies Society, Crocheting, Sewing, Quilting, Crafts, Puzzles, Movies, a variety of Games, Lunch Bunch and Field Trips.

Educational Presentations: Medicare, and Social Security facts to inform our seniors, smartphone classes, common scams that may target seniors, are a few of the educational presentations we have offered. Our educational presentations continue to evolve with our seniors' changing needs.

We also have monthly birthday celebrations, Group trips to Senior Expos in the area, visit other centers for plays and, musicals and luncheons.

Again, we cannot thank you enough for your support, kindness, and generosity!

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Instance
